

ICCC Board Nominations and Election Report 2019

The Indo-Canadian Community Centre (“ICCC”) completed successful board elections on July 27, 2019 at the East India Company Restaurant (1993 Robertson Road, Nepean) in accordance with the Article 6 of the ICCC Bylaws (last amended at the Special General Body Meeting held on May 18, 2019). A new Board of Directors was elected at the 2019 Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) with a 3-year rolling structure.

Board Elections Process:

A Nomination Committee (comprised of three members: Chairperson Rekha Dogra, Chandra Vaidyanathan, and Bhagwan Gupta) was formed pursuant to Article 19 of the ICCC Bylaws, to conduct the board election at the 2019 AGM. Nominations for nine Board members with a 3-year rolling structure were invited from all ICCC life members. All members were advised to read the Bylaws of the ICCC and the Duties of directors of non-profit corporations before submitting their nominations.

The Nominations submission date was July 17, 2019, ten days prior to the date of the AGM. The Nomination Committee received nine nominations and these nominations were evaluated by the Committee as required by article 7 of the ICCC Bylaws for eligibility to serve on the board. All nine eligible nominations for the nine open Board positions were presented at the floor of the AGM, and all nine nominees were elected unanimously to the Board on July 27, 2019.
